Introduction

To align with GOPAC’s mission to foster accountability and transparency in the fight against corruption, the GOPAC Board of Directors seeks to lead by example and to ensure that all policies, decisions and actions taken by the Board are governed by accountability to the greater GOPAC membership.
Board of Directors Policies Manual

Board Structure
The Board is comprised of regionally representative Board Members. A maximum of three Board Members may be elected by the Board of each Regional chapter and a maximum of one Board Member may be elected by the Board of each Regional chapter in formation. Board Members must be elected from amongst current GOPAC members.

A single term of office of a member of the Board shall be no more than two years.

In the case of death, absence, resignation, or removal of a Board Member, the Regional chapter that elected the member may, in consultation with the Board, designate a substitute to hold office for the remainder of the member’s term. In the absence of a designation by the Regional chapter, the Board may nominate a substitute.

Executive Committee
Members of the Board shall elect an Executive Committee comprised of a Chairperson, two Vice Chairpersons, a Secretary, and a Treasurer to hold office between global conferences as the administrative organ of GOPAC. The election shall take place at a meeting of the full Board to be held at each global biennial conference. Interim vacancies shall be filled by the Board of Directors from current members. If the number of Regional chapters affiliated to GOPAC is more than four, a Regional chapter can not have more than one member on the Executive Committee.

A single term of office of a member of the Executive Committee shall be no more than two years.

The Chairperson may not serve as Chairperson for more than two terms and he or she must be succeeded by a person from a different Regional chapter.

Audit Committee
Members of the Board shall appoint an Audit Committee comprised of a minimum of two and maximum of five members who are not members of the Executive Committee and are nominated by each fully formed regional chapter. The members of the Audit Committee must be financially literate regarding the specialized matters of GOPAC or must acquire such financial literacy within a reasonable time period after appointment to the committee. In addition, at least one member should be a financial expert possessing the following characteristics:

- An understanding of generally accepted accounting principles applicable to GOPAC and a strong understanding of financial statements;
- The ability to assess the application of generally accepted accounting principles in connection with accounting for estimates, accruals, and reserves of GOPAC;
- Experience preparing, auditing, analyzing, or evaluating financial statements of comparable complexity to those of GOPAC;
- Understanding of internal controls and procedures for financial reporting; and
- Understanding of Audit Committee functions.

A single term of office of a member of the Audit Committee shall be no more than two years.

Role and Responsibilities of the Board of Directors

Role of the Board
The role of the Board is to:

- Decide any matter, other than matters reserved to the Global Conference that is of importance to GOPAC as well as guide the implementation of its decisions in accordance with the aims and objects of the organization.
- Consider the reports of the Executive Committee.
- Determine the annual subscription to be paid by members.
- Establish rules in relation to contributions, donations, and gifts to GOPAC.
- Consider membership applications, as well as take decisions on the suspension and/or removal of a member.
- Consider and make recommendations to the Global Conference on proposals to amend any of the articles of the constitution.
- Consider the annual budget and any supplementary matters.

Responsibilities of the Board
Board Members are responsible for the following:

- Regional Leadership: Encourage and support their regional chapters to be healthy and vibrant.
- Fundraising: Connect with their networks to spur interest in support of GOPAC and their regional chapters. Board fundraising activities may include major donor contacts, sponsorship contacts, membership recruitment, and efforts to boost event registrations.
- Strategic Planning: The Board is the primary force behind the organization’s strategic planning decisions. Board Members review and consider the strategic plan.
- Oversight of the Executive Committee: The GOPAC Board is responsible for general oversight of the Executive Committee. This role does not extend to operations but does include fiduciary oversight.

Duties
Board Members have the following duties:

- To take reasonable care when making decisions for the organization (called “duty of care”).
- To act in the best interest of the organization (called “duty of loyalty”).
- To act in accordance with the organization’s mission (called “duty of obedience”).
- To stand aside when they have conflicts of interest (called duty of “recusal”).

Due Diligence
Each Board Member must act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of GOPAC, and must exercise the care, diligence, and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. They are each responsible for:
• Understanding GOPAC's vision, mission, and values;
• The stewardship, in conjunction with the other members of the Board, of the management of the affairs of GOPAC;
• Becoming knowledgeable about GOPAC's operations;
• Promoting a culture of ethical conduct, including compliance with the Code of Conduct and the Handbook on Parliamentary Ethics and Conduct;
• Understanding GOPAC's current practices, policies, and GTFs (as applicable);
• Preparing for each meeting by reviewing the materials provided and requesting, as appropriate, clarification or additional information necessary to fully participate in Board deliberations and make informed judgments;
• Actively participating in deliberations and decisions, and informing themselves of significant matters dealt with at meetings not attended; and
• Preventing personal interests from conflicting with, or appearing to conflict with, the interests of GOPAC, and disclosing conflicts.

Representation of GOPAC

Any major statements of an advocacy nature must be consistent with the general parameters of Board approved policies or positions. This is not intended to inhibit expression of personal or professional opinions, but care should be taken by individual members of the Board to ensure statements are consistent with GOPAC policies.

Code of Conduct

All Board Members must sign and comply with the GOPAC Board of Directors’ Code of Conduct, approved by the Board in 2002 (see Annex B).

The Code of Conduct stipulates that each Board Member must:

• Adhere to the Code, and indicate potential conflicts of interest or past involvements, which if publicized, might embarrass GOPAC;
• If on reflection, feels that his/her participation on the Board could reasonably risk the reputation of GOPAC, resign from the Board, or if unsure consult with its Chairperson;
• On becoming aware of the risk of negative publicity regarding a purported involvement in corruption or a conflict of interest, document the situation and send the information to the GOPAC Secretariat;
• On being charged with corruption, even if not guilty, stand down from the Board until the matter is resolved; and
• On being convicted of corruption, resign from the Board and withdraw from GOPAC immediately.

Upon receipt of the signed Code of Conducts and/or knowledge of potential conflict of interest from each Board Member, the Global Secretariat will:
• Review the attestation of each member to assess if there is an apparent risk;
• If there is no apparent risk and no incident during membership on the Board, the document will be retained in confidential files until the member is no longer on the Board and then destroyed.
• If there might be a risk, the Global Secretariat will ask two members of the Executive Committee to (without identifying the individual or divulging identifying specifics) review for any possible risk. If either of the members reviewing the case feels there is a justifiable risk to GOPAC, this view will be conveyed to the member concerned. If the individual chooses to remain on the Board, he/she will be asked to state the case to the Executive Committee either personally or through the Global Secretariat. The Executive Committee can accept the risk or refer it to the Board of Directors, which as mandated by the GOPAC constitution has the final authority.

While the Board of Directors and its Executive Committee should be vigorous in asserting the GOPAC Code of Conduct, the burden of implementation rests with all members. Moreover, application of the Code is not a device to invade an individual’s privacy, nor should it be applied in a way that provides the unscrupulous with a weapon with which to undermine the credibility of GOPAC members by falsely accusing them of corruption.

Any material sent to the GOPAC Secretariat should be directed to the Executive Director and identified as confidential. It will be so treated, as described above, until leave is provided to make it public or accessible to the Board of Directors.

Since GOPAC Directors are selected by Regional chapters, potential Board Members are asked to inform their regional colleagues to avoid the risk of embarrassment.

Disposition of Complaints and Disputes Involving Board Members

The Board is mandated to decide on appropriate actions after a finding of a breach of the Code of Conduct by Board Members.

If a matter is brought to the attention of the Global Secretariat concerning a Board Member’s breach of the Code, a letter to the Board Member will be written by the Executive Director or designate presenting the allegations and giving the following information:

• The Board Member has thirty days to respond with full details. If the Board Member does not respond within the 30 days s/he will be assumed to have resigned from all positions as well as GOPAC.
• If the Board Member provides full details, the Executive Director will compile a report that will be given to the Executive Committee. It will be the decision of the Executive Committee to recommend to the Board whether to ask for the Board Member’s resignation or to allow the Board Member to continue serving on GOPAC’s Board.

If the allegation becomes charges, the Board Member must immediately step down from all positions. While charges are pending a member can not stand for election.

The GOPAC Chairperson, elected by the Board, chairs the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee with assistance from the Vice Chairs. Executive Committee Responsibilities

General Responsibilities of the Executive Committee

The Executive Committee is responsible for all matters pertaining to GOPAC, except where a responsibility or task has been expressly vested in another organ. It particularly shall have the following functions:

- Receiving all other applications for membership, or affiliation to GOPAC and forwarding such requests with a recommendation to the Board;

The planning cycle will begin in June of each year for ratification by the Executive Committee in September prior to year-end (September 30).
Role and Responsibilities of the Audit Committee

The purpose of the Audit Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities, by providing oversight of the GOPAC annual audit as well as oversight of investigations of significant cases of conflict of interest, misconduct, fraud, and abuse.

The Audit Committee has the authority to:

- Consult with GOPAC’s external auditors when appropriate;
- Investigate any matter brought to its attention with complete and unrestricted access to all books, records, documents, facilities, and personnel of GOPAC; and
- Retain outside counsel, auditors, investigators, or other experts in the fulfillment of its responsibilities, including the sole authority to approve the firms’ fees and other retention terms.

The Audit Committee will be provided with the resources necessary to discharge its responsibilities.

The Committee’s role is one of oversight, recognizing that GOPAC’s Management Committee is responsible for preparing the financial statements and that the external auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Audit Committee recognizes that GOPAC’s internal financial Management Committee, as well as the external auditors, have more time and detailed information about GOPAC than do Committee members. Consequently, in discharging its oversight responsibilities, the Committee is not providing expert advice or any assurances as to GOPAC’s financial statements or any professional certification as to the external auditor’s services.

The Committee shall have certain responsibilities in the areas of financial reporting, internal control, and GOPAC governance.

In the areas of financial reporting and internal control, the Committee shall:

- Oversee the external audit process, including consultation with the external audit firm on GOPAC’s audit results;
- Review accounting policies;
- Review GOPAC’s audited financial statements and other reports requiring approval by the Board of Directors.
- Receive and review any other communications from the external auditors that the external auditors are required to submit to the Board or Committee under currently applicable professional auditing standards;
- Review and discuss with the Management Committee the findings and recommendations communicated by the external auditor;
- Inquire about the existence and nature of significant audit adjustments proposed by the external auditors and significant estimates made by management;
- Meet privately with the external auditors to discuss the quality of management, accounting, and information technology personnel, and to determine whether any restrictions have been placed by management on the scope of their external audit or if there are any other matters that should be discussed with the Committee;

- Prepare a report, signed by the Chairperson of the Committee, for presentation to the full Board, describing the activities and responsibilities of the Committee; and
- Direct special investigations into significant matters brought to its attention within the scope of its duties.

In the area of GOPAC governance, the Committee shall:

- Review GOPAC policies regarding compliance with laws and regulations, ethics, employee conduct, conflicts of interest, and the investigation of misconduct or fraud;
- Review current and pending litigation or regulatory proceedings effecting governance in which GOPAC is a party;
- Establish and monitor GOPAC procedures for receiving and handling significant complaints about accounting and auditing matters;
- Review significant cases of employee or director conflict of interest, misconduct, or fraud;
- Discuss with the external audit firm the reliability of GOPAC’s information technology system and any specific security measures in protecting GOPAC against fraud and abuse; and,
- Meet with GOPAC’s general counsel to discuss legal matters that may have a significant impact on GOPAC.

The Committee shall meet on a regular basis and call special meetings as deemed necessary in fulfilling the responsibilities.
Board Development

Recruitment and Screening of New Board Members
The Regional chapters are responsible for recruiting and electing Board Members to represent their region on the global Board. All new Board Members are required to sign the GOPAC Board of Directors’ Code of Conduct and indicate any potential conflict of interest or past involvements which might embarrass GOPAC.

Orientation of New Members
New Board Members are to be supplied with the following information:

- Welcome letter from the Global Secretariat;
- GOPAC’s vision, mission, and programs;
- List of Board Members and their contact information;
- Strategic plan;
- Staff listing;
- Financial Policies;
- Human Resources Policies; and
- Board of Directors Policies.
Board Management

Meetings

Board of Directors
The Board meets periodically, at least once every two years in person at the Global Conference. Other Board meetings may take place in person or by electronic means, the timing of which is to be decided at the Board’s discretion.

A quorum of the Board shall be 1/3 of the Board members with representation from 2/3 of the Regional chapters.

Decisions are made by majority vote, and each Board Member shall have one vote. In the event of there being no majority, the Chairperson has a casting vote.

Minutes will be kept of meetings and all decisions made. The minutes must be signed by the Secretary (or another designated member in the Secretary’s absence) and the Chairperson to be valid.

Executive Committee
The Executive Committee meets at least once every year in person, with one of these meetings coinciding with a meeting of the complete Board. Other Executive Committee meetings may take place in person or by electronic means, the timing of which is to be decided at the Chairperson’s discretion.

A quorum of the Executive Committee shall be three members.

Decisions are made by majority vote and each Executive Committee Member shall have one vote. In the event of there being no majority, the Chairperson has a casting vote.

Minutes will be kept of meetings and all decisions made. The minutes must be signed by the Secretary (or another designated member in the Secretary’s absence) and the Chairperson.

Audit Committee
Audit Committee meetings may take place in person or by electronic means, the timing of which is to be decided at the Audit Committee’s discretion.

In Camera Meetings
Sensitive issues, such as the Executive Director’s performance evaluation, should be discussed during an in-camera session, where all non-essential attendees and staff are recused from the meeting room, leaving the Board or Committee to discuss without the taking of official minutes.

Decisions made during these ‘in-camera session’ must be reported back to an open meeting in order to be entered into the official minutes of the meeting.
Board Member Attendance
It is anticipated that all Board Members will attend the biennial conference. GOPAC endeavours to use available technology to increase the participation of members unable to travel to meetings, and provides meeting documentation and minutes to members who are absent from the Board meeting.

Board Member Performance
Board Member “non-performance” may include failure to prepare for, attend, or participate in Board meetings, or failure to fulfill obligations with respect to service. It may also involve behavioural dynamics such as the inability or unwillingness to voice opinions in a way that contributes positively to debate, or a failure to respect differing views.

Preventing Board Member Non-Performance
GOPAC ensures that Board Members know what is expected of them and understand their obligations by having written position descriptions. These are provided to Board Members at the time they join the Board and describe how Board Members are expected to perform in terms of:

- Attendance and participation at meetings;
- Preparation for meetings;
- Communication outside of meetings;
- Committee service, if required;
- Ethical standards and fiduciary duty (including compliance with the organization’s code of conduct and conflict of interest policies); and
- Participation in orientation, educational, and planning sessions.

Addressing Board Member Non-Performance
Problems with Board Member performance should be discussed with the individual Board Member by the Chairperson, and the following options should be explored:

- A developmental plan (e.g., mentorship, change of behaviour, relieving oneself of other commitments, etc.); or
- A solution involving withdrawal from the problem, such as serving in a less onerous role or resigning.

If a Board Member, however, is unwilling or unable to change his/her behaviour, it may be preferable for the Board Member to resign or not seek re-election. As Board Members are appointed by Regional chapters, it is obligatory for the Regional Board to be kept informed of performance-related issues, with a recommendation that the Board Member not be re-appointed.
Regional chapter Governance

Regional chapter Recognition
A group of National chapters wishing to create a new Regional chapter must send a letter to the Global Secretariat requesting recognition as a Regional chapter or as a Regional chapter in Formation. This letter must indicate whether they meet the criteria for Regional chapters or Regional chapters in Formation, as described below.

The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors shall be provided with the required information from the Global Secretariat and shall have the authority to determine whether a group of National chapters qualifies as a Regional chapter in Formation or as a Regional chapter.

Criteria for a Regional chapter
A Regional chapter must:

Each Regional chapter can elect up to three representatives to the Global Board of Directors. Each Regional chapter in Formation can elect one representative to the Global Board of Directors. In all cases, the representatives shall be elected by the Regional Board of Directors.

Six months prior to the Global Conference, the Global Secretariat will send a letter to each Regional Chair and Regional Secretariat requesting the names, biographies, and contact information of the newly-elected or re-elected representatives who are to serve on the Global Board of Directors starting at the upcoming Global Conference.

A welcome package and information regarding the Board of Directors meeting to take place at the Global Conference will be sent to all new and continuing Board Members before the Global Conference.

Regional Grants
Overview
Funds permitting, the Executive Committee may allocate a portion of the organization’s operational budget for regional grants. The Global Secretariat shall send the Regional chapters a call for proposals and review all applications received to provide a recommendation to the Executive Committee, which will vote on which proposals are accepted and which amounts are awarded. All Regional chapters shall be accountable to the Global Secretariat for all expenditures paid by awarded funds.

Eligibility

Project Grant: Projects grants are grants used to achieve a specific project.

Staffing Grant: Staffing grants are grants used solely to cover the salary of secretariat staff or consultants.

Except under extraordinary circumstances, each grant will be valid for a period of one year only, based on the organization’s fiscal year starting on October 1st and ending on September 30th.

Review Process
The Global Secretariat will review all applications based on the criteria described below and will provide the Committee with a recommendation for funding. The Executive Committee will review and determine which proposals will be accepted and what amount will be awarded.

Executive Committee members, if applicable, shall abstain from discussion and votes on proposals submitted by their respective chapters.

National Chapter Governance

National Chapter Recognition

If no regional chapter exists, the Global Secretariat may be contacted directly. This correspondence must indicate how they meet the criteria for a national chapter as described below.

Criteria for National Chapters
A national chapter must:

- Contain a minimum of ten (10) members from both government and opposition parties whose membership applications are deposited with the Global Secretariat;
- Have an elected Executive Committee (see National Chapter Executive Committee section below for details);
- Have a national chapter contact person whose name and contact information are deposited with both the regional chapter and the Global Secretariat;
- Adopt and adhere to a constitution that is consistent with and does not depart from the aims and objectives of GOPAC’s constitution and that is deposited with the regional chapter and the Global Secretariat; and
- Be non-partisan, non-political, and open to individuals of both genders and all faiths.

National Chapter Executive Committee
Each national chapter must elect an Executive Committee to lead the activities of their chapter. The Executive Committee must be composed of a Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary and Treasurer. The positions of Secretary and Treasurer may be combined and filled by one member. All regional and global Board Members are ex-officio members of the Executive Committee of the national chapter in the country in which they reside.

The Executive Committee of the national chapter is responsible for:

- Considering membership applications and making recommendations to the global Executive Committee through the Global Secretariat;
- Leading the development, adoption and implementation of a national action plan;
- Leading fundraising efforts for national projects; and
- Regularly communicating with their regional chapter and the Global Secretariat to receive support and share progress on their chapter’s anticorruption activities.

Reporting Structure
All national chapters are accountable to the Board of Directors and must continue to meet the criteria for national chapters.
Individual Membership

The following categories of individuals are eligible to be considered for full membership in GOPAC:

- Serving parliamentarians;
- Former parliamentarians; and
- Democratically elected parliamentarians who have been denied their right to take office.

Freedom from Discrimination

GOPAC thrives on the diversity of its membership, and is committed to the ideal that parliamentarians should reflect the breadth of the societies that they represent. Towards this end, no national or regional chapter may discriminate against any prospective or actual member of GOPAC.

Application Process

Any application for individual membership in GOPAC should be carefully and dispassionately reviewed and considered by the GOPAC national chapter concerned, and not simply accepted or rejected automatically. The process for assessing memberships is as follows:

1. The national chapter should consult with its regional chapter if there are any grounds to believe that the applicant’s past or current activities or reputation may have an adverse impact on GOPAC at a regional level.
2. The regional chapter should consult with the GOPAC Global Secretariat if there are any grounds to believe that the applicant’s past or current activities or reputation may have an adverse impact on GOPAC at a global level.
3. The decision whether to accept or reject an application for membership rests with the national chapter concerned. However, the GOPAC Executive Committee and the GOPAC Board of Directors have the ultimate responsibility to deny membership to anyone who does not meet GOPAC’s global requirements or standards.
4. If an individual applies for membership from a country without an established GOPAC national chapter, the relevant regional chapter should consider the application.
5. If an individual applies for membership from a country where there is neither a GOPAC national chapter nor a GOPAC regional chapter, or where the national or regional chapter concerned is unable to consider the application, the application shall be considered by the GOPAC Global Secretariat, which will make its recommendation to the Executive Committee.

Global Standards

In addition to meeting the basic eligibility requirements, an applicant must meet GOPAC’s global standards to be accepted as a member. The applicant must:

- Support – in word and deed – GOPAC’s anti-corruption and pro-democracy mandate and values;
- Agree to abide by the GOPAC Code of Conduct;
- Avoid actual, potential, and perceived conflicts of interest;
- Have no history of criminal convictions or of findings of culpability by a tribunal of competent jurisdiction for acts of corruption, breach of trust, or abuse of public office, unless GOPAC is satisfied that such convictions or findings were without merit (such as cases where manifestly false accusations of corruption have been used as political weapons against innocent individuals);

- Not be under criminal indictment, and not be the subject of unresolved proceedings related to a legitimate accusation of corruption by a competent public or professional body;
- Not be engaging in corrupt activities or have a history of engaging in corrupt activities;
- Not risk bringing GOPAC or its mandate into disrepute.

Impasses

Many of the qualities described under “Global Standards” require the exercise of judgement. It is inevitable that there will occasionally be cases where reasonable and well-intentioned people will honestly disagree about whether an individual applicant meets these standards. In such cases, the national chapter must work diligently to come to a consensus.

Ultimately, the test is not whether an applicant “deserves” to be a member of GOPAC, but instead, whether having that person as a member would strengthen or weaken GOPAC as an institution, whether he or she would help or hinder GOPAC to achieve its mandate.

If local circumstances make it difficult or impossible for a national chapter to dispassionately weigh the merits of an application, the national chapter may delegate the decision to its regional chapter or to the Global Secretariat.

Appeals

Any person whose application to join GOPAC is declined has a right to appeal the decision to broader levels of jurisdiction: a rejection by a national chapter may be appealed to the regional chapter; a rejection by a regional chapter may be appealed to the GOPAC Executive Committee; a rejection by the GOPAC Executive Committee may be appealed to the GOPAC Board of Directors. The decision of the GOPAC Board of Directors is final.

In the event that an application is accepted, any member of GOPAC may similarly appeal to have the acceptance overturned, by filing such an appeal with the Global Secretariat within ninety days of the application being accepted by a national chapter, regional chapter, or the GOPAC Executive Committee. The Global Secretariat will make such arrangements as it deems necessary to fairly, justly, and expeditiously hear the appeal to overturn the membership acceptance, and will make a recommendation to the GOPAC Executive Committee. The GOPAC Executive Committee will make the decision on the appeal. A decision by the GOPAC Executive Committee to overturn a membership acceptance may be appealed to the GOPAC Board of Directors; however, the acceptance shall remain overturned until and unless the decision to overturn is invalidated by the GOPAC Board of Directors, whose decision is final.

Withdrawal of Membership

The decision to remove an individual from membership in GOPAC should never be taken lightly: the decision reflects the values and judgement of GOPAC, and can affect the esteem in which an individual is held in his or her country or community. Nevertheless, the GOPAC membership has a responsibility to uphold and model the highest standards of integrity, and where a removal is warranted, it must be carried out without fear or favour.

Circumstances that warrant a withdrawal of membership include those where the individual concerned has:

- Been convicted, or has been found to be culpable by a tribunal of competent jurisdiction, for acts of corruption, breach of trust, or abuse of public office, unless GOPAC is satisfied that such convictions or findings were without merit (such as cases where manifestly false accusations of corruption have been used as political weapons against innocent individuals);
- Violated the GOPAC Code of Conduct;
- Wilfully acted to harm GOPAC’s mission or collective membership;
- Brought GOPAC into public disrepute, or risks bringing GOPAC into public disrepute.

It is the responsibility of the Global Secretariat to receive any complaints that would potentially warrant the withdrawal of a membership, and to prepare a report and recommendation to the Executive Committee. It is the responsibility of the Executive Committee to come to a decision. That decision may be appealed to the GOPAC Board of Directors, whose decision is final.
Observers
The following are eligible to become observers to GOPAC:

- Individuals;
- Donors;
- NGOs;
- Supreme Audit Institutions; and
- Other organizations that support or pursue similar objectives as GOPAC or provide funding for its activities.

Observers are not a category of members. Registering observers is a way for GOPAC to remain aware of those individuals or institutions that wish to be informed of GOPAC activities and/or to be part of the audience at GOPAC events. Observers have no entitlements from or responsibilities to GOPAC, and being registered as an observer does not mean that the individual or organization has been “accepted” or “approved” by GOPAC, or that he, she or it meets any of GOPAC’s standards for membership.

Application Process
The application process for observers is managed by the Global Secretariat. The process for assessing observer requests is as follows:

1. The Global Secretariat may consult with the regional chapter or national chapter on an applicant’s suitability to determine if there are any grounds to believe that the applicant’s past or current activities or reputation may have an adverse impact on GOPAC should they be invited to a GOPAC event.

2. The GOPAC Executive Committee and the GOPAC Board of Directors have the ultimate responsibility to deny observer requests to applicants whose past or current activities or reputation may have an adverse impact on GOPAC should they be invited to a GOPAC event.

Appeals
Any applicant whose observer request was declined has a right to appeal the decision to the GOPAC Board of Directors. The decision of the GOPAC Board of Directors is final.

Withdrawal of Observer Registration
Circumstances that warrant the withdrawal of observer registration include:

- The belief that his, her or its past or current activities or reputation may have an adverse impact on GOPAC should they be invited to a GOPAC event or have had an adverse impact on GOPAC due to their attendance at a GOPAC event.
- Misconduct at a GOPAC event.

It is the responsibility of the Global Secretariat to receive any complaints that would potentially warrant the withdrawal of observer registration, and to prepare a report and recommendation to the Executive Committee. It is the responsibility of the Executive Committee to come to a decision. That decision may be appealed to the GOPAC Board of Directors, whose decision is final.

Appointment
The Executive Committee shall be responsible for defining and conducting the process of hiring the Executive Director. In the event that there is a vacancy in the Executive Director position, the Executive Committee may appoint an interim Executive Director.

The Executive Director’s job description shall be reviewed and approved by the Executive Committee prior to any recruitment process. See Annex A for the Executive Director’s job description. The Executive Director requires eligibility to work in Canada, as the position is located within the Global Secretariat in Ottawa, Canada.

Recruitment Overview
The objective of a recruitment process is to identify, attract, and encourage the most suitable candidates to apply, by clearly communicating the requirements of the position and selection criteria.

The job description should be advertised and the Executive Committee should develop a short list of candidates with the required qualifications and experience. The Executive Committee will arrange to interview all short-listed candidates, and select the candidate whose qualifications and experience best fit GOPAC.

The recruitment process shall be documented and the records shall be kept by the Global Secretariat.

Advertising
Any advertising of positions will normally be performed by the Global Secretariat or an independent recruitment consultant firm at the direction of the Executive Committee. A decision to advertise will generally have to consider cost and other relevant factors:

• Providing opportunities for key potential candidates;
• Attracting a broad range of candidates;
• Timeliness or urgency; and
• Providing a transparent and appropriate advertising strategy.
Conflicts of Interest
Care should be taken to identify all perceived or actual conflicts of interest. The conflicts should be appropriately considered.

Employment Agreement
To formalise the appointment of an Executive Director, the appointee and Executive Committee (with the Chairperson as signatory) should sign a contract outlining the terms and conditions of the appointment. This contract sets out, but is not limited to, the following:

- Duties and responsibilities of the position;
- Period of appointment;
- Termination arrangements;
- Financial compensation;
- Leave entitlement; and
- Key performance indicator details.

Termination of Appointment
The circumstances in which the Executive Director can be terminated include:

- The period of appointment expires – The Executive Committee may decide to reappoint the Executive Director or terminate the appointment arrangement. At least six (6) months’ advance notice of non-reappointment must be given in writing.
- Resignation of the appointee – The appointee may resign from the position prior to the expiry of the period of appointment. The Executive Director should provide the Executive Committee with at least 3 months’ notice in writing.
- Removal of the appointee – The Executive Committee has the authority to discharge the appointee for just cause, including failure to adequately perform the duties of the Executive Director to the satisfaction of the Executive Committee.

Performance Evaluation
The performance evaluation provides the Executive Committee and the Executive Director with the opportunity to review the Executive Director’s agreed-upon goals and outcomes for the past year and to set goals and objectives for the coming year. It provides a mechanism for discussing opportunities for improving performance and achieving the organization’s goals and objectives.

The performance appraisal should be conducted annually, in conjunction with the organization’s annual planning cycle and fiscal year-end. The performance appraisal process should be delegated to the Executive Committee, with the understanding that the Board will be informed of the outcome.

The performance appraisal should be linked directly to the organization's strategic plan and, in particular, the goals and measurable objectives for the planning period. Specific goals or key performance indicators are identified at the beginning of an appraisal year by the Executive Director and the Executive Committee. These goals/result areas should be based on those set out in the strategic plan.

It is recommended that a “360° performance review approach” be used, whereby input is sought and received from the Executive Committee, the Executive Director’s direct reports, and a self-assessment prepared by the Executive Director. All input should be treated with the utmost confidentiality. The 360° performance review approach can be time-consuming to carry out, but the feedback can also be invaluable as a way of identifying both areas for improvement and strong performance.

The annual performance appraisal process should be the responsibility of the Chairperson, with support from the Executive Committee. The Chairperson, members of the Executive Committee, direct reports to the Executive Director, as well as a self-assessment tool should be used in order to inform the performance appraisal.

- To adhere to the Code, and indicate any potential conflicts of interest or past involvements that might embarrass GOPAC;
- If on reflection I feel that my participation on the Board could reasonably risk the reputation of GOPAC, I will resign from the Board, or if I am unsure, I will consult with its Chairperson;
