CONSTITUTION

Adopted at the inaugural Global Conference of Parliamentarians Against Corruption in Ottawa, Canada, 16 October 2002.

Amended at the Sixth Global Conference of Parliamentarians Against Corruption in Yogyakarta, Indonesia, 8 October 2015.

GLOBAL ORGANIZATION OF PARLIAMENTARIANS AGAINST CORRUPTION
CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

THE PREAMBLE

- RECOGNISING: The supremacy of parliament as the institution to whom a government is answerable and accountable.
- AWARE: That corruption poses a grave danger to the wellbeing of all people and to the development of their societies.
- ALARMED: That corruption diverts scarce resources from basic human needs and destroys confidence in the integrity of our institutions.
- CONCERNED: That it is essential that we develop healthy, balanced relations between the state, civil society and the marketplace and that parliaments be strengthened as effective institutions of accountability in approving the policies and actions of governments.
- ACKNOWLEDGING: That corruption can best be controlled by strengthening systems of accountability, transparency and public participation in the governance process.
- REALISING: The great value of parliamentarians coming together to create a proactive strategy, to share information, experience and lessons learned, and to develop initiatives to strengthen parliaments in the fight against corruption.
- REITERATING: Our commitment to strengthen society and uphold transparency and accountability by:
- Building the commitment and capacity of parliaments to exercise accountability with particular relation to financial matters.
  - Sharing information, lessons learned and best practices.
  - Undertaking projects to reduce corruption and promote good governance.
  - Cooperating with International Financial Institutions (IFI's) and organizations in civil society with shared objectives.
  - Recognizing that the rule of law is paramount in the development of a healthy, free and productive society.

Do hereby resolve to form the Global Organization for Parliamentarians Against Corruption as a tool for strengthening Parliaments' effectiveness as the first line in the fight against corruption.

1. NAME

- 1.1 The name of the Organization shall be Global Organization of Parliamentarians Against Corruption (GOPAC) established under the laws of Canada.
